STEINBECK REVIEW

Now accepting submissions for upcoming issues!

Steinbeck Review is an authorized publication on the life and works of American novelist John Steinbeck (1902–1968). SR has a three-fold mission of broadening the scope of Steinbeck criticism, promoting the work of new and established scholars, and serving as a resource for Steinbeck teachers at all levels. Essays should show an awareness of the most recent developments in Steinbeck criticism and should be written with an intent to delight as well as to instruct. All critical and theoretical critical approaches are welcome. Poetry submission should deal with themes or places associated with Steinbeck's life and works. Submissions should be sent to the editors through the journal's online submission and peer review system below.
